

Consider the actions to be taken to protect lives and the best methods of evacuation during disasters.

Time Elapsed	Situation	Information	Action to Take
Three Days Prior	Typhoon Forms Warning Level 1	Black: Meteorological Information Blue: Information on River Levels Green: Evacuation Information ○ Future Typhoon Movement	○ Watch the weather forecast on TV ○ Double-check the evacuation areas and methods of evacuation on the hazard map
Two Days Prior	Typhoon draws nearer, rain and wind becomes stronger Warning Level 2	◇ Heavy Rain Caution (Heavy rainfall due) ◇ Flood Caution (Increase in river water)	○ Prepare the things you need to take when evacuating ○ Check information on rainfall and rivers on the TV and Internet, etc.
One Day Prior
Twelve Hours Prior	River water increases Heavy rainfall increases river water, and water flows alongside the riverbanks	Reached a water level in which flood-fighting teams are on standby Reached a flood caution water level Flood caution information issued Work commences on preparing evacuation sites (places to which safe evacuation is possible) 	○ Check upriver rainfall ○ Check the water levels of rivers ○ Recharge the cell phones
Five Hours Prior	There is a chance of the river overflowing Warning Level 3	Reached a water level at which evacuation is decided Flood warning information issued Evacuation order to elderly people, etc., issued	People who require time to evacuate are to evacuate ○ Begin evacuating to safe locations
Three Hours Prior	Warning Level 4	Reached a flood hazard water level Flood hazard information issued Evacuation order issued	Everybody in hazardous areas is to evacuate ○ Complete evacuating to safe locations
Zero Hour	The river overflows Warning Level 5	Flooding occurs Flooding occurrence information issued Emergency safety measures issued	Disaster occurred 